Following the proposition of “Le catalogue de l’exposition” (‘the catalogue of the exhibition’ an exhibition of photographs organised by Bob Nickas at the gallery in 2011), this summer Triple V invites you to do ‘Le Tour’.

“Le Tour de l’exposition” presents the paintings and sculptures of 13 different artists of different nationalities, the majority of the works will be shown for the first time: John Armleder, Greg Bogin, Yves Brochard & Claude Darras, Henry Codax, Adriana Lara, Olivier Mosset, Hugo Pernet, Delphine Reist, Sylvain Rousseau, Michael Scott, Blair Thurman, and John Tremblay.

The exhibition’s timing with the major sporting event of the same name ‘Le Tour de France’ taking place around the French countryside is not a complete coincidence, yet we must emphasise that this is not how we do things here, art is not a competition!

AN ADDITIONAL SPACE FOR GALERIE TRIPLE V

5 RUE DU MAIL - PARIS 2<sup>ÈME</sup>

On 4th February 2016,
Galerie Triple V
inaugurated its second exhibition space on 5, rue du Mail, in the second arrondissement of Paris close to Place des Victoires.

Made up of a vast hall of 30m long and 13m wide, a total surface area of 500m<sup>2</sup> with a ceiling height of 4m, this new exhibition space finds itself in an old fabric factory, and preserves the industrial aspect.

It is in this highly creative area that the gallery can bring its resolutely contemporary touch to a privileged space which also sees the instalment of its first contemporary art gallery.

Galerie Triple V has been working since 2007 to present both French and international contemporary artists from various generations and aesthetic horizons to abstract, conceptual, pop and minimalist approaches.

Developed in partnership with art dealer Laurent Strouk, this new space will allow Galerie Triple V to take its support and collection of artists to a higher level, enriched by the arrival of two new artists: Alex Brown and Lauren Montaron.
